GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION

Pre-requisites, Co-requisites, & other restrictions There are no prerequisites for this course, other than an eagerness to learn and commitment to active engagement in class.

Course Description This course will provide students with an introduction to Texas State government and politics. The course covers topics that relate to state governmental institutions, political behavior, and public policy.

Learning Outcomes By the end of the course, a student who has mastered the course material will be able to:

- Evaluate the role of interest groups, political parties, and public opinion in shaping Texas politics and policies
- Analyze and think critically about contemporary developments in Texas politics
- Identify, describe, and evaluate electoral and institutional processes
- Recognize and understand historical trends in the development of state institutions and the Texas constitution
- Relate course topics meaningfully to living in Texas

COURSE POLICIES

Grading (credit) Criteria

Assignment weighting:
Exam 1:	25%
Exam 2:	25%
Exam 3:	25%
Reading quizzes:	28%
Total:	103%

University standard grading scale:

A (94%+), A- (90-93%), B+ (87-89%), B (84-86%), B- (80-83%), C+ (77-79), C (74-76%), C- (70-73%), D+ (67-69%), D (64-66%), D- (60-63%), F (<60%)

Grades will not be changed unless I make a computational error. Similarly, the extra 3% you may earn by successfully completing the reading quizzes means that course grades will not be rounded up.

If you have trouble meeting your expectations grade-wise, I encourage you to seek assistance from the Teaching Assistants or me as soon as possible. We will be happy to work with you to develop a plan for success in the course.

Grade disputes

Any and all grade disputes must be addressed in person with the instructor within 7 days of receiving the grade. You should email me (a) a clear explanation of the basis for the dispute, (b) what grade is more representative and why, and (c) a reference that supports your objection. From there we will schedule a meeting to discuss. Grade disputes raised after 7 days will not be addressed.

Grade Components

Exams

Procedure:

- Exams will be given in class. Scantrons will be provided, but students must bring a #2 pencil.
- Exams will begin at the start of class. Once the first student has turned in their exam, no other exams will be given out. Be on time!

Final Exam (optional)

- The final exam will be cumulative and optional
- Final exam score will replace your lowest exam score (if you score better on the final)

Make-up Exams	Make up exams will be given only for University excused absences with documentation. Should a student miss an exam without a University excused absence, that student should plan to take the optional cumulative final exam.
Reader Assignments	Assignments based on the assigned readings in Readings in State and Local Government will be made available in eLearning. Students will be given multiple attempts to complete these Assignments prior to the due date for each. The highest score will be recorded. Assignments will no longer be available for credit once the due date has passed. Please see instructions in eLearning.
Extra Credit	No extra credit will be offered that is not mentioned in the syllabus. Please do not make requests for extra credit, as they will not be granted.
Late Work	No late work will be accepted.
Class Attendance	Expected. No grade is assigned, but attendance may be taken periodically and will be considered as a part of the final grading calculation.

Course Conduct

Classroom Citizenship	Laptops or other electronic devices may be used to take notes in class. Under no circumstances, however, will electronic devices be allowed to be a distraction to other students. Should this occur, you will be asked to put your device away or to leave the class. Drinks are acceptable in class, but please do not bring food.
Email & Communication	Students are expected to either check their UTD email or to make arrangements so that their UTD mail is delivered to an inbox that is checked. All course communication will be either through eLearning or UTD email. It is the student's responsibility to be sure they receive course communications. While in-person contact is preferred, if you must email the instructor, please observe the following email requirements. Emails which do not meet these requirements will not be answered. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Include your name, course number, appropriate salutation, and a direct question. I teach multiple courses and need to know who you are, what course you're in, and how to respond. - Check the syllabus for an answer to your question. If the question is directly addressed by the syllabus, I will not respond. If you see your question is addressed but you need clarification, please indicate that and I will be happy to help. - Do not use texting language. While I understand language norms change and evolve, if u r gonna email me about sumthin in tha class n u wtn me 2 kno wat u mean cuz like im not gonna guess @ wat u mean n send responses about sumin I think u meant but like isn't actually wat u meant. This is a matter of clarity and professionalism. - If you do not receive a response in a reasonable amount of time (and you've checked to be sure your email doesn't fall into one of the above categories), please follow up. I intend to respond to all emails within 24-48 hours and it is possible that yours has been accidentally overlooked.
Comet Creed	This creed was voted on by the UT Dallas student body in 2014. It is a standard that Comets choose to live by and encourage others to do the same: "As a Comet, I pledge honesty, integrity, and service in all that I do."

In short: Academic integrity will be taken especially seriously and violations will be reported according to University policy. Please don't cheat.

UT Dallas
Syllabus Policies and Procedures

The information contained in the following link constitutes the University's policies and procedures segment of the course syllabus.

Please go to <http://go.utdallas.edu/syllabus-policies> for these policies.

Miscellaneous

Religious Observances

I will make accommodations for religious holidays and observances that conflict with course assignments and due dates. It will be the student's responsibility to bring any conflict to my attention so we can discuss the accommodation.

Sexual Discrimination
Policy

The course will abide by Title IX & UT Dallas' sexual harassment and sexual misconduct policy (UTDBP3102). Please find the policy details here:
<https://policy.utdallas.edu/utdbp3102>

Incidents in or out of class may be reported here: <http://www.utdallas.edu/oiec/complaints/>

ADA Compliance

The course follows policies and procedures articulated by UT Dallas with respect to ADA compliance. (Policy UTDBP3100)

Qualifying students seeking reasonable accommodation for a disability should see the Office of Student Accessibility, which will determine eligibility and implementation plans for reasonable accommodation. Student seeking accommodation should see the OSA and bring the action plan to the course instructor as early as possible in the course. Should you choose not to use the accommodation, you may. Nevertheless, to use the accommodation approved by OSA, the instructor must have the documentation ahead of time.

Mental Health

Students who feel anxious, overburdened, or otherwise in need of support, should be aware of the resources UT Dallas offers with respect to mental health. The Student Counseling Center provides services and programs to assist students in achieving emotional well-being and to help manage personal demands that may get in the one of your academic success. They provide counselling, learning disability assessments, and a variety of other services. Please see their website for more information: <http://www.utdallas.edu/counseling/>
