GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION

Pre-requisites, Co-requisites, & other restrictions There are no prerequisites for this course other than an eagerness to learn and a commitment to active engagement in class.

Course Description This course intends to provide a comprehensive understanding of American government – foundations, Constitution, institutions, and political behavior. The course begins by developing the historical and theoretical principles underlying the US governmental system, and proceeds to see those applied in both institutional arrangements and the political behavior of Americans. The course also addresses the development of those arrangements and behaviors over time as they have adapted to changing circumstances.

Learning Outcomes By the end of the course, a student who has mastered the course material will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the influence Founding principles have on our enduring political arrangements
- Apply political science theories to explain contemporary political situations
- Think critically about contemporary developments in political science and American politics
- Participate effectively in American politics, having gained an understanding of civic responsibilities and governmental arrangements

Required Texts & Materials (1) Ginsberg, Benjamin et al. 2017. We The People: an Introduction to American Politics (11th Essentials Edition). New York: W. W. Norton Publishing. ISBN: 9780393639988

- Amazon: <https://amzn.to/2nRolu9> ($56.88 rent)

Readings, & Materials

Additional readings may be posted on the course's eLearning page. Reading political news in either print or electronic media is encouraged.

COURSE POLICIES

Grading Criteria

Assignment weighting:

Exam 1:	25%	[19 September, 2018]
Exam 2:	25%	[24 October, 2018]
Exam 3:	25%	[5 December, 2018]
Reader:	28%	[Varies. See course schedule.]
Total:	103%

University standard grading scale:

A+ (97%+), A (94-97%), A- (90-94%), B+ (87-90%), B (84-87%), B- (80-83%), C+ (77-79), C (74-76%), C- (70-73%), D+ (67-69%), D (64-66%), D- (60-63%), F (<60%)

Grades will not be changed unless I make a computational error. Similarly, the extra 3% you may earn by successfully completing the reading quizzes means that course grades will not be rounded up. A 96.8%, for example, would be considered an A, not an A+.

If you have trouble meeting your expectations grade-wise, I encourage you to seek assistance from the Teaching Assistants or me as soon as possible. We will be happy to work with you to develop a plan for success in the course.

Grade disputes

Any and all grade disputes must be addressed in person with the instructor within 7 days of receiving the grade. You should email me (a) a clear explanation of the basis for the dispute, (b) what grade is more representative and why, and (c) a reference that supports your objection. From there we will schedule a meeting to discuss. Grade disputes raised after 7 days will not be addressed.

Grade Components

Exams

Procedure:

- Exams will be given online in eLearning, and cover only the material in that unit.
- Exams will be available from 8a-11p on exam day, and may be taken once.
- If you experience a technical error while taking the exam, please begin another attempt and inform the instructor via email.
- Exams are to be taken individually. Collaboration will be considered a violation of academic integrity and will be treated severely.
- More information and instructions on eLearning page

Final Exam (optional)

- The final exam will be cumulative and optional
- Final exam score will replace your lowest exam score (if you score better on the final)

Make-up Exams

Make up exams will be given only for University excused absences with documentation. Should a student miss an exam without a University excused absence, that student should plan to take the optional cumulative final exam.

Reader
Assignments

Assignments based on the assigned readings in Readings in National Government will be available in eLearning at least one week prior to the due date. Students will be given multiple attempts to complete these assignments prior to the due date for each. The highest score will be recorded. Assignments will no longer be available for credit once the due date has passed, and may not be made up regardless of the reason, technical difficulties included. It is your responsibility to complete the assignment within the time frame allotted.

Additionally, there is a syllabus quiz which will be included as a grade in Reader Assignment component of the course.

Overall reader grade will be calculated as points earned/total points. Staying on top of these assignments is the best way to be successful.

Extra Credit

No extra credit will be offered in this course. Please do not make requests for extra credit, as they will not be granted. You may earn “extra” points on your course grade by completing your reader assignments on time and for full credit. Please take advantage of this opportunity.

Late Work

No late work will be accepted.

Class Attendance

Expected. No grade is assigned, but attendance may be taken periodically and will be considered as a part of the final grading calculation. Attendance may be necessary for success in this course, as some material presented in class may not be presented in the text.

Course Conduct

Classroom
Citizenship

Laptops or other electronic devices may be used to take notes in class. Under no circumstances, however, will electronic devices be allowed to be a distraction to other students.

Active and civil participation in class is expected.

Email &
Communication

Students are expected to either check their UTD email or to make arrangements so that their UTD mail is delivered to an inbox that is checked. All course communication will be either through eLearning or UTD email. It is the student’s responsibility to be sure they receive course communications.

While in-person contact is preferred, if you must email the instructor, please observe the following email requirements. Emails which do not meet these requirements will not be answered.

- Include your name, course number, course section, appropriate salutation, and a direct question. I teach multiple courses and sections (roughly 1,000 students), and need to know who you are, what course you’re in, and how to respond.
- Check the syllabus for an answer to your question. If the question is directly addressed by the syllabus, I will not respond. If you see your question is addressed but you need clarification, please indicate that and I will be happy to help.
- Do not use texting language. While I understand language norms change and evolve, if u r gonna email me about sumthin in tha class n u wtn me 2 kno wat u mean cuz like im not gonna guess @ wat u mean n send responses about sumin I think u meant but like isn’t actually wat u meant. This is a matter of clarity and professionalism.
- If you do not receive a response in a reasonable amount of time (and you’ve checked to be sure your email doesn’t fall into one of the above categories), please follow up. I intend to respond to all emails within 24-48 hours and it is possible that yours has been accidentally overlooked.

Comet Creed This creed was voted on by the UT Dallas student body in 2014. It is a standard that Comets choose to live by and encourage others to do the same:

“As a Comet, I pledge honesty, integrity, and service in all that I do.”

In short: Academic integrity will be taken especially seriously and violations will be reported according to University policy. Don't cheat.

UT Dallas Syllabus Policies and Procedures The information contained in the following link constitutes the University's policies and procedures segment of the course syllabus.

Please go to <http://go.utdallas.edu/syllabus-policies> for these policies.

Miscellaneous

Religious Observances I will make accommodations for religious holidays and observances that conflict with course assignments and due dates. It will be the student's responsibility to bring any conflict to my attention so we can discuss the accommodation. Must be notified prior to conflict.

Sexual Discrimination Policy The course will abide by Title IX & UT Dallas' sexual harassment and sexual misconduct policy (UTDBP3102). Please find the policy details here: <https://policy.utdallas.edu/utdbp3102>

Incidents in or out of class may be reported here: <http://www.utdallas.edu/oiec/complaints/>

ADA Compliance The course follows policies and procedures articulated by UT Dallas with respect to ADA compliance. (Policy UTDBP3100)

Qualifying students seeking reasonable accommodation for a disability should see the Office of Student Accessibility, which will determine eligibility and implementation plans for reasonable accommodation. Student seeking accommodation should see the OSA and bring the action plan to the course instructor as early as possible in the course. Should you choose not to use the accommodation, you may. Nevertheless, to use the accommodation approved by OSA, the instructor must have the documentation ahead of time.

Mental Health Students who feel anxious, overburdened, or otherwise in need of support, should be aware of the resources UT Dallas offers with respect to mental health. The Student Counseling Center provides services and programs to assist students in achieving emotional well-being and to help manage personal demands that may get in the one of your academic success. They provide counselling, learning disability assessments, and a variety of other services. Please see their website for more information: <http://www.utdallas.edu/counseling/>
